

(Top) In Stanford Hall's stately grounds, Titch gets awheel. (Bottom) The two-compartment tank has been converted to hold only petrol, the old oil tank now a reserve. Gatechange, here in neutral, reveals there are only three gears which the owner regards as sufficient. Remember, it's a six-hundred with the torque of a four. Water circulation is thermo-siphon (no pump).

